

MALAYSIAN LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR

17/08/2023 - 21/08/2023

From 17th August till 21st August, AIESEC in UPM had hosted the Malaysian Leadership Development Seminar (MyLDS) 2023 at School of Business and Economics. MyLDS is a conference which gathers all AIESEC in Malaysia members.

MyLDS is a conference that features different activities that aim to develop the soft skills of young leaders. Activities done such as simulation spaces, keynote sessions and reflection sessions, aims to build leaders equipped with both soft and hard skills. The conference also involved partnership sessions, which provided a platform for delegates to widen their perspectives and understand better about the current career field.

Through the experience, delegates get to build up their competency as a leader, as well as engaging with other AIESECers around Malaysia, and widen their connections which can better prepare them before stepping into the working field.
